4. A National Athlete Trust benefactor donation of $9,500 was received in 2023-24 via Sport NL which has enabled NL athletes to travel to participate in competitions this past year. BNL would like to express our sincere gratitude to the anonymous benefactor for this generous donation.

5. Comparison of membership revenues: in calendar year 2023, BNL had a total membership of 430 which generated gross revenue (including membership, event fees, insurance and donations) of $51,145. To date in 2024, BNL has 170 members which has resulted in gross revenue to date of $15,334. Based on prior years, membership numbers may be expected to rise through to October, however it would be reasonable to expect that this year's membership numbers and revenues may drop by about 40%.

6. In June 2024, CCN transitioned all clients to a new payment platform, from WePay to PaySafe. All BNL transactions are now processed through PaySafe and there are no additional costs or impacts for members or event organizers.

7. BNL holds all assets in a chequing account with RBC.

8. BNL's executive committee will continue to work with John Barron in 2024 to finalize the 2023-24 Financial Statements for presentation to the Board. BNL's year end position at March 31, 2024 was $107,768 in total assets.

Julian Kennedy, Secretary, July 6, 2024.
